

As a person who wants to keep informed about the news of my community, the country and world affairs, I think you would do a disservice to allow newspaper and tv stations to be owned by the same company in a given geographic area. This limits the diversity of opinion and I think does detriment to the newspaper industry and quality of reporting. Please don't allow this kind of consolidation.

Sincerely,
Linda Phillips